

'Behaviour, Tech & Buildings'
Symposium on Hybrid Work in the Public Sector
20th of May 2021
12:30 – 15:00 (CEST)

Program

12:30 – 12:40 Start symposium
Opening symposium by Ms. Marieke van Wallenburg, DG Public Administration

12:40 – 13:30 Panel discussion on civil servant participation for the future of work

How do we look back upon the past period and what insights do we take along in the organization of hybrid work? How can employees be involved in this transition?

Panel members:

- Mr. Wim Pullen, Director at the Center for People and Buildings
- Mr. Daniel Gerson, Head of Public Employment and Management Team at the OECD
- Ms. Tina Weber, Research manager at Eurofound

Moderated by Ms. Nicole Donkers, international coordination at the Ministry of the Interior and Kingdom Relations

13:30 – 13:40 Presentation by Mr. Marien den Boer (Coordinator of program on hybrid work, Ministry of the Interior and Kingdom Relations)

Topic: Towards hybrid working
The road to a hybrid workplace. Future hybrid work in the Dutch public sector.

13:40 – 14:00 Presentation by Mr. Norman Jardine (Special advisor professionalism HR and customer service, DGHR) of the European Commission (TBC)

Topic: Physical workspace
Connection between society and stakeholders, arranging work environment and collaboration. Effect on cross-border collaboration.

14:00 – 14:20 Presentation by Mr. Stan Lee (Vice-President) from the Public Service commission Canada or representative from Treasury Board Secretariat of Canada

Topic: Digital work environment
Digital workplace, digital skills, data usage, innovation, and smart offices.

14:20 – 14:40 Presentation by Mr. Alexander Grünwald (Director Civil Service with Directorate General III – Civil Service and Administrative Innovation, Federal Ministry for Arts, Culture, the Civil Service and Sport, Austria)

Topic: Social work environment
Onboarding, leadership on a distance, social aspects of work.

14:40 – 14:55 Closure by Mr. André Weimar, director of department on procurement, facilities and housing policy of the government

Reflection on the various presentations and discussions. What have we learned, what would we like to implement, how will we continue now?

15:00 End of symposium
